

COMMERCIAL EXHIBITORS AND CONCESSIONAIRES

Don A. Peck - Superintendent

Concessionaires of every nature shall make application with the Fair Office or Superintendent of Concessions, and will be required to sign a written contract and make a monetary deposit. Before being allowed to transact any business on the Fairgrounds he must furnish the Society with a Liability Certificate of Insurance and hold proof of Workman's Compensation. Also, vendors must be registered with the NYS Sales Tax Dept., furnish the Fair Office with his/her Registration number & display their "Original Certificate of Authority" at his or her booth during the entire length of the Fair.

The Management reserves the right to cancel at any time, for reasons satisfactory to it, all contracts made with concessionaires or others.

Only such privileges are granted for concessions and attractions as are required to supply the wants of the people or that may add to their comfort, convenience and pleasure. The Management will not accept or knowingly allow the continuance of any concession, show or attraction of a questionable nature, nor will any privilege be permitted where the business is conducted in other than a legitimate and trade-like manner.

Concessionaires must abide by the laws of the State, County, Town and the rules of the Fair Board of Managers (the conditions under which the concession was granted). Anyone found violating these laws will be closed, will forfeit his concession money paid, and will be ordered from the fairgrounds.

Concessionaires must confine themselves to the space assigned. No Concessionaire or Exhibitor will be permitted to sublet or share any portion of the space allotted to him. A violation of this rule will result in the original purchaser of space forfeiting all his rights; ejection of him; partners, employees and wares from the grounds.

All drinking and eating concessions must furnish themselves with proper and sanitary equipment that will comply with the rules and regulations of the State Department of Health. This rule will be strictly enforced. ALL BEVERAGES MUST BE SERVED IN PAPER CUPS. ALL GARBAGE MUST BE PLACED IN CLEAR PLASTIC TRASH BAGS READY FOR THE COLLECTOR.

Concessionaires must keep their spaces in a neat and sanitary condition. All refuse and filth must be removed from their space and placed in garbage cans.

Food and drinks must be wholesome and sold at reasonable prices. All concessionaires shall keep a PRINTED OR PAINTED SIGN posted in plain view at the front or entrance to their place of business showing prices to be charged for meals, lunches or other articles of food and drink offered for sale or for services to be tendered. This is to be approved by the lessor.

All sound-producing equipment must be of such a nature as to not cause annoyances or inconvenience to visitors or other exhibitors. Permission for use of it must be first obtained from the Concession Superintendent.

Any concessionaire or exhibitor doing business with firms or persons who are not properly authorized by the Management will be subject to cancellation of their contract to operate.

Deliveries & Solicitors: Delivery of merchandise, food, soft drinks, or service or the solicitation of business and orders from concessionaires, exhibitors and others on the fairgrounds are prohibited until such deliverymen, solicitors, or firms they represent have made arrangements for such delivery and solicitation by obtaining privileges for the same from the Concession Superintendent.

Except in case of serious emergency, no truck will be admitted to midway after 11 a.m. and only then by permission of Concession Superintendent.

DELIVERYMEN positively will NOT BE permitted to retail, sell or give away, any food, soft drinks, goods, wares or merchandise except to bonafide Concessionaires who occupy regularly lease concession space on the Fairgrounds. Any violation of this rule shall be sufficient cause to exclude any person, firm or others from the grounds.

Deliverymen and Solicitors will NOT be permitted to leave their automobiles, trucks, or conveyances in such a position as to cause congestion.

The Management assumes no responsibility in case of damage, loss or injury to person or property caused by reason of neglect or willful acts of any person, firm, or their agents, representatives, servants or employees, or from any cause whatsoever, having license to exhibit on said fairgrounds, or occupying space thereon, and in case it be subjected to any expense or liability all persons causing same or liable therefore, shall indemnify the said Fair Management. The Fair Society will not be liable for any debt incurred by a concessionaire or exhibitor or for any salary or expenses due any of their employees. Neither shall it be responsible for the results of any accident or damage to any person or persons to any animal or to property from any cause whatsoever.

The Management reserves the right to exclude from the grounds any person or persons whom they deem undesirable, or expel from the grounds such person or persons who shall violate any part of these rules.

Concessionaires must remain on the grounds as stated per contract.
